Information on the CEF - Common European Framework of Reference of Languages

Basic User

A1

Can understand and use familiar everyday expressions and very basic phrases aimed at the satisfaction of needs of a concrete type. Can introduce him/herself and others and can ask and answer questions about personal details such as where he/she lives, people he/she knows and things he/she has. Can interact in a simple way provided the other person talks slowly and clearly and is prepared to help.

A2

Can understand sentences and frequently used expressions related to areas of most immediate relevance (e.g. very basic personal and family information, shopping, local geography, employment). Can communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar and routine matters. Can describe in simple terms aspects of his/her background, immediate environment and matters in areas of immediate need.

Independent User

B1

Can understand the main points of clear standard input on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc. Can deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling in an area where the language is spoken. Can produce simple connected text on topics which are familiar or of personal interest. Can describe experiences and events, dreams, hopes & ambitions and briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans.

B2

Can understand the main ideas of complex text on both concrete and abstract topics, including technical discussions in his/her field of specialisation. Can interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible without strain for either party. Can produce clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects and explain a viewpoint on a topical issue giving the advantages and disadvantages of various options.

Proficient User

C1

Can understand a wide range of demanding, longer texts, and recognise implicit meaning. Can express him/herself fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions. Can use language flexibly and effectively for social, academic and professional purposes. Can produce clear, well-structured, detailed text on complex subjects, showing controlled use of organisational patterns, connectors and cohesive devices.

C2

Can understand with ease virtually everything heard or read. Can summarise information from different spoken and written sources, reconstructing arguments and accounts in a coherent presentation. Can express him/herself spontaneously, very fluently and precisely, differentiating finer shades of meaning even in more complex situations.

HEALTH INSURANCE

Proof of health insurance is mandatory for enrolment. You have several options to proof it:

Option 1: European Students with EHIC (European Health Insurance Card). For EU-students only !

Option 2: German public health insurance

It costs approximately 80 € per month (standard price for all students from all health insurance companies). You will have the opportunity to buy it during the enrolment period at the Express- Service.

Option 3: German private health insurance

Students from non-EU countries or students who cannot provide the EHIC (European Health Insurance Card) can purchase a German private health insurance, e. g. MAWISTA, a special private health insurance for exchange students. The monthly prime is 35 € - 75 €, depending on the coverage. More information at mawista.com.

IMPORTANT: In most cases a Health Insurance from the home country alone is not sufficient to be enrolled.

Students need to get the authorization of a German public health insurance provider. Important: To get this authorization, you need a copy of your benefit plan and your insurance contract.

I have carefully read the information above. I am aware that without sufficient health insurance, enrolment is not possible.
